

FACTS COMPARISON CHART

	The Croquis House Plans	Pre-Designed Houses (All inclusive)
1	In The Croquis House Plans our professionals design the inside and outside of our houses to maximize comfort, safety and home enjoyment.	Pre-Designed Houses (All inclusive) are designed to maximize company profits with sales putting in jeopardy your comfort, safety and home enjoyment.
2	With The Croquis you can really make your house at your own style, selecting one of our models and adjusting it to fit your needs or simply start a new design from scratch.	Pre-Designed Houses (All inclusive) have limited changes by model making the construction more expensive and having duplicity expenses as a final result.
3	With The Croquis, the contractor is responsible to build and finish the house within the client budget in a timely manner.	Pre-Designed Houses (All inclusive) have certain amount of materials assigned to each model and if for some reason the contractor wasted material and need more; the client get charged for it.
4	With The Croquis you can choose between thousands of floor tiles available in the market, with all the different styles, colors and materials.	Pre-Designed Houses (All inclusive) offer 2 or 3 floor tiles styles they have in their inventory for resale, obviously more expensive and low quality. And if you want to change to another style, color or better material, the client get charged for it.
